

2017 VSA FLORIDA SUMMER CAMP

for teens with autism and related disabilities

JULY 24 – 28 | MIAMI

ANIMATION GETS REAL

Explore the exciting world of animation and filmmaking as you learn real life skills, including:

Animation ✨ Writing and Editing ✨ Storyboarding ✨ Music Making

About the instructors:

Dani Bowman, animator, author and entrepreneur will impart her animation skills while exuding enthusiastic inspiration to students with disabilities. Dani has ASD, Asperger's Syndrome Disorder and has been teaching animation for 6 years since she founded her company Powerlight Studios in Los Angeles, CA.

Dr. Clint Randles, Assistant Professor of Music Education at University of South Florida and a VSA Florida teaching artist in the Tampa Bay area, teaches iPad music, an innovative musical art form that can be adapted to everyone. Dr. Randles teaches pre-service music teachers, works with local school districts, and conducts research on the place of creativity in the music curriculum.

All Kids Included (AKI) promotes inclusive arts and cultural programs in school settings and throughout the community so that kids of all abilities and their families can participate fully in the arts.

Made possible with the support of VSA Florida, the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners, and in part through grant funding provided by The Children's Trust. The Children's Trust is a dedicated source of revenue established by voter referendum to improve the lives of children and families in Miami-Dade County.
